1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below,

1 that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential 2 information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be 3 followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from 4 the court to file material under seal.

5 1.2 GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

6 This action is likely to involve confidential, proprietary, and sensitive 7 information in connection with the Parties' business that is not publicly available that 8 warrants special protection from disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 9 the prosecution of this litigation. Such materials include, among other things: (i) non-10 public data concerning account performance, revenue, viewership, and the financial 11 condition and metrics of the parties' respective business platforms; (ii) related 12 confidential business, operational, and financial information; and (iii) other private, 13 sensitive, or proprietary information that is not generally available to the public.
14 Public disclosure of this information could cause competitive harm to the parties, 15 violate privacy rights, or otherwise compromise legitimate confidentiality interests.
16 Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution 17 of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect 18 information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are 19 permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the 20 conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the 21 ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is 22 the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for 23 tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it 24 has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause 25 why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

26 2. DEFINITIONS
27
28

1           2.1    Action: the instant litigation, Ted Entertainment, Inc. v. Alexandra 2    Marwa Saber p/k/a Denims, et al., Case No. 2:25-cv-05564-WLH-PD, pending in the 3    United States District Court for the Central District of California.

4           2.2    Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation 5    of information or items under this Order.

6           2.3    “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of 7    how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection 8    under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in the Good 9    Cause Statement.

10          2.4    Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their 11   support staff).

12          2.5    Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 13   items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 14   “CONFIDENTIAL.”

15          2.6    Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless 16   of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, 17   among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or 18   generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

19          2.7    Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 20   pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as 21   an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

22          2.8    House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action.
23   House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 24   counsel.

25          2.9    Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 26   other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

27          2.10   Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party 28   to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action and have

1 appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which 2 has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes support staff.

3 2.11 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, 4 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 5 support staffs).

6 2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 7 Discovery Material in this Action.

8 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 9 services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 10 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) 11 and their employees and subcontractors.

12 2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 13 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

14 2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material 15 from a Producing Party.

16 3. SCOPE

17 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 18 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted 19 from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of 20 Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties 21 or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

22 Any use of Protected Material at trial will be governed by the orders of the trial 23 judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

24 4. DURATION

25 Once a case proceeds to trial, all of the information that was designated as 26 confidential or maintained pursuant to this protective order becomes public and will 27 be presumptively available to all members of the public, including the press, unless 28 compelling reasons supported by specific factual findings to proceed otherwise are made to the trial judge in advance of the trial. See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1180-81 (9th Cir. 2006) (distinguishing “good cause” showing for sealing documents produced in discovery from “compelling reasons” standard when merits-related documents are part of court record). Accordingly, the terms of this protective order do not extend beyond the commencement of the trial.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

1 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, 2 but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the 3 Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” (hereinafter 4 “CONFIDENTIAL legend”), to each page that contains protected material. If only a 5 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing 6 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 7 markings in the margins).

8 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for 9 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 10 indicated which documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection 11 and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection will be 12 deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents 13 it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, 14 or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing 15 the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL 16 legend” to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions 17 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 18 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 19 margins).

20 (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identify the 21 Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close of the deposition all 22 protected testimony.

23 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any 24 other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior 25 of the container or containers in which the information is stored the legend 26 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information warrants 27 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, will identify the protected 28 portion(s).

1           5.3   Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 2 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 3 Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
4 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 5 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 6 Order.

7   6.   CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

8           6.1   Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 9 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's 10 Scheduling Order.

11          6.2   Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party will initiate the dispute 12 resolution process (and, if necessary, file a discovery motion) under Local Rule 37.1 13 et seq.

14          6.3   The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding will be on 15 the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose 16 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 17 expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived 18 or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties will continue to afford the 19 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing 20 Party's designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

21   7.   ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

22          7.1   Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 23 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 24 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 25 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 26 conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a Receiving 27 Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).
28

1 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 2 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 3 authorized under this Order.

4 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 5 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 6 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 7 “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

8 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as well 9 as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary 10 to disclose the information for this Action;

11 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 12 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

13 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 14 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 15 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

16 (d) the Court and its personnel;

17 (e) court reporters and their staff;

18 (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 19 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 20 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); 21 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 22 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

23 (h) during their depositions, witnesses ,and attorneys for witnesses, in the 24 Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party 25 requests that the witness sign the form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (2) they will 26 not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the 27 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise 28 agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed

1 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may be 2 separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as 3 permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and 4 (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, 5 mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

6 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 7 OTHER LITIGATION

8 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation 9 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as 10 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

11 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification will 12 include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

13 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order 14 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena 15 or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification will include a copy of 16 this Stipulated Protective Order; and 17 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 18 by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

19 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 20 the subpoena or court order will not produce any information designated in this action 21 as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena 22 or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The 23 Designating Party will bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court 24 of its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 25 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful 26 directive from another court.

27 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 28 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

1 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a 2 Non-Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 3 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 4 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 5 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

6 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 7 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 8 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s 9 confidential information, then the Party will:

10 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 11 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement 12 with a Non-Party;

13 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 14 Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 15 specific description of the information requested; and 16 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-17 Party, if requested.

18 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 19 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party 20 may produce the Non-Party’s confidential information responsive to the discovery 21 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party will not 22 produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 23 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.
24 Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party will bear the burden and expense 25 of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

26 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

27 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 28 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this

1 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 2 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts 3 to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or 4 persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, 5 and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and 6 Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

7 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE 8 PROTECTED MATERIAL

9 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 10 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, 11 the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 12 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure 13 may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior 14 privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the 15 parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or 16 information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the 17 parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted 18 to the court.

19 12. MISCELLANEOUS

20 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 21 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

22 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 23 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 24 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 25 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 26 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

27 12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 28 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may 1 only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific 2 Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected Material under seal 3 is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public 4 record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

5 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

6 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within 60 7 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return 8 all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this 9 subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 10 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected 11 Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving 12 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same 13 person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies 14 (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or 15 destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 16 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any 17 of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to 18 retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing 19 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert 20 reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such 21 materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 22 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 23 Section 4 (DURATION).

1     14.    VIOLATION OF ORDER

2           Any willful violation of this Order may be punished by civil or criminal 3 contempt proceedings, financial or evidentiary sanctions, reference to disciplinary 4 authorities, or other appropriate action at the discretion of the Court.
